Tom Devilbiss from Carroll County and Janice Outen from MDE to address Water Issues:

Tom Devilbiss, from Carroll County, and Janice Outen, from the Maryland Department of the Environment, will be on hand to discuss water quantity issues in light of the current drought and the ongoing development strains we have both in Finksburg and in Carroll County. Also discussed will be concerns with water quality as well as waste water/septic output.

Finksburg Community Roadside Clean-up:

The next community trash pickup will be Saturday, October 27th, which is "National Make a Difference Day". We will meet at 8 a.m. in the Finksburg Plaza Shopping Center, parking lot. We will be picking up trash along Route 91 south of Route 140. Please make plans to come out and help cleanup Finksburg.

November 15th Meeting – Finksburg History:

The November meeting will be a community conversation about the history of Finksburg. Come prepared to share memories with your Finksburg neighbors. This is a continuation of the conversation we started last year which drew a huge crowd.

Library Update:

Groundbreaking for the new Finksburg Library took place August 2, 2007 at 9:00 AM on the property. FPACC representatives were on hand. Construction has started and progress can be tracked at: <http://finksburglibrary.blogspot.com/>.
