► 11/15/18 General Meeting: Annual History Night - "A Spirited Tale" A historical look at alcohol distilleries in the Woolery's District:

The speaker is be Mark Fraser, Ph.D. Dr. Fraser is an avid historian and former curator of the Gatehouse Museum in Sykesville, Maryland.

This year's topic will be "A Spirited Tale - Alcohol Distilleries in the Woolery's District." Dr. Fraser will focus on distilleries located in Tannery and Cedarhurst, their products, and the effects of Prohibition on the local economy in the Woolery's District. Hear about the Great Whiskey Heist, the role of distilleries in making ammunition during World War I, and the medicinal properties of Maryland rye whiskey.

The presentation is free and advance registration is not required. For more information, contact Mark Fraser at 443-974-5017 or by email at drmark@earthlink.net.
